The first ever publication to showcase the scholarship presented at the annual American Men's Studies Association (AMSA) conferences. This landmark volume includes 17 chapters divided into 7 sections: MEN AND MASCULINITIES; CONSTRUCTING IDENTITIES; PSYCHOLOGY AND COUNSELING; HEALTH AND HEALTH CARE; DEVELOPMENT AND AGING, LITERATURE; AND EDUCATION. With authors hailing from around the world—including New Zealand, Canada, Spain, UK, and USA—and working across a range of disciplines, Beyond Borders offers a sampling of critical inquiry into the ways in which the constructs "men and masculinities" are currently being considered in the social sciences, humanities, and health fields. Chapters include the 17th Annual AMSA Conference keynote address by noted scholar Victor Seidler and reflections by AMSA Loren Frankel Memorial Scholarship recipient, Yiu Tung Suen.
